Deciding on your next step in life is sometimes a hard choice when you are uncertain of where to go next. Whether you are opting out of the traditional university route or exploring a career change, our apprenticeships offer an attractive route to professional development and continued education.

Our apprenticeships provide you the opportunity to earn whilst you learn, spending 80% of your time fulfilling a real job within one of our business teams and up to 20% of your time attending training to qualify in your field of study.

Willis Towers Watson provides a range of services to our business clients. We work with several household names across a range of industries, including airlines, banks, drinks companies and high street retailers.

How we partner with our clients varies across our business segments, but examples of our work include:

- Advising companies on how to invest their employee pension funds
- Defining and securing sufficient insurance cover for our clients' business operations
- Enabling our insurance clients to spread their own risk effectively

These are only a few ways that we support our clients to manage risk and people as a source for growth.

As an apprentice at Willis Towers Watson, you will benefit from:

- A real job from day one
- A competitive starting salary
- Comprehensive training from a government-approved provider
- Fully funded professional qualification
- Support from apprenticeship HR team, team buddies and business mentors
- Paid holiday leave
- All the usual colleague benefits (company pension, bike to work scheme and so on)
- Annual paid volunteering day
- Inclusion in a vibrant office atmosphere with active inclusion and diversity groups – including the Young Professionals Network
